Time to Nominate for Cochrane Community Awards

Cochrane, AB – The time is here to recognize outstanding local citizens, community leaders, schools, businesses and organizations who make Cochrane a great place to live. Nominations are now open for the 2015 Cochrane Community Awards. The deadline to nominate is Friday April 10.

The awards celebrate and recognize outstanding achievements and contributions in our community. There are a total of 12 award categories to choose from, including the prestigious Order of Cochrane, presented by Cochrane's mayor and council.

It's now easier than ever to nominate by using the online nomination form. The option to nominate by completing and submitting a paper application form is still available. Look for more information, and a nomination form at www.ccawards.ca

The Cochrane Community Awards initiative and the selection of award recipients, is guided by a broad-based committee of local representatives including educators, seniors, businesses, sustainability champions, as well as the Cochrane and District Chamber of Commerce and the Town of Cochrane. Nominees in all categories are recognized at the awards ceremony.

Awards will be presented Sunday May 24, 2015 at the Cochrane RancheHouse.
